DANIEL BUKVICH

Daniel Bukvich has been a member of the faculty of the Lionel Hampton School of Music at the University of Idaho since 1978. Bukvich has taught a wide variety of courses at the school, focusing primarily in the areas of percussion, composition, and music theory, and has conducted several ensembles, including marching band, jazz choirs, jazz bands and percussion ensemble.

Bukvich earned a bachelor of arts degree in music education from Montana State University and a master of music degree in composition and arranging from the University of Idaho.

He has performed in the Northwest, the Northeast and Canada as jazz drummer with Carl Fontana, Stan Getz, Louis Bellson, Tony Bennett and Don Shelton. He has performed as rock/pop drummer with Chuck Berry, Sonny and Cher, and the Coasters. He has done arrangements for the Buddy Rich Band, the Woody Herman Band, the Lionel Hampton Band, the Seacoast Band (Boston), Tony Bennett, the Louis Bellson Band, The Airmen of Note (U.S. Air Force), and Clark Terry. He is in great demand as a clinician and guest lecturer/conductor. He has received commissions for compositions from ensembles across the country and in several foreign countries.

PAULA A. CRIDER

Paula A. Crider is currently in her tenth year as Associate Professor of Music and Assistant Director of Bands at the University of Texas. During the 1991-1992 school year, Ms. Crider took a one year leave of absence from the University of Texas to serve as Director of Bands and head of Graduate Conducting at Columbus College in Columbus, Georgia. Ms. Crider currently serves as instructor for Brass Methods, Marching Techniques, and Undergraduate Conducting. She conducts the University of Texas Symphony Band, assists with the Longhorn Marching Band, and supervises student teachers.

Ms. Crider received degrees in Music and in English Literature from the University of Southern Mississippi, and began her teaching career at Purvis High School, in Purvis, Mississippi. Following two years of teaching in Mississippi, she earned a Master's Degree in Music Education from the University of Texas, and holds the unique distinction of having been the first female in the State of Texas to serve as director of bands at a Class 5-A high school.

During her twelve years as director of the Crockett High School Bands, her ensembles earned 12 consecutive University Interscholastic League awards for excellence in concert, marching and sight-reading. The crockett band was twice selected "Best in Class" at the Six Flags Invitational Concert Festival, and was named State Marching Champions in 1980 and again in 1981. Ms. Crider was the recipient of the National Band Association's "Citation of Excellence" for her band's performance at the 1978 National Band Association convention.

Ms. Crider has published articles in The Instrumentalist and the Band Director's Guide, and has published manuals for brass techniques and marching band. She has served as clinician and adjudicator throughout the United States and abroad.

Welcome! We are very happy to host the Four State High School Festival Band, and we are quite pleased and honored to have two esteemed guest conductors with us this year -- Mr. Daniel Bukvich and Ms. Paula Crider.

Pittsburg State University believes in the development of the whole person: physically, mentally, spiritually and aesthetically. It is essential that education should cover all facets of life, and all of us should be given the opportunity to partake of the beauty and enjoyment of the fine and performing arts. I know that your musical experience will be enriched by your opportunity to work with Mr. Bukvich and Ms. Crider.

I hope that your visit to Pittsburg State is a pleasant one and that you will come back soon. If there is anything we can do to help you while you are here, just let us know.

Donald W. Wilson
President

It is a pleasure for the College of Arts and Sciences to join in welcoming the members of the Four-State High School Festival Band to the campus for this important annual event. We are very proud of our Music Department, and the band program under the direction of Mr. James Tapia is an important part of that program. We are very pleased that Daniel Bukvich and Paula Crider have agreed to come and serve as the guest conductors. All of us on the campus hope that you will have a pleasant and worthwhile experience.

Orville Brill, Dean
College of Arts and Sciences

The faculty, staff and students of the Pittsburg State University Department of Music are delighted to again have the opportunity of hosting the Four State Festival Bands. We wish to welcome and congratulate the young musicians who have been selected to participate in what promises to be a most rewarding and worthwhile musical experience. A warm welcome is likewise extended to their parents and band directors, whose guidance and support contributes significantly toward the success of this day.

We look forward with great enthusiasm and excitement to tonight's program.

Gene E. Vollen, Chairman
Department of Music
